#2005 2013 Larkmead Trio

2013 Larkmead Cabernet Sauvignon

93 Points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate

The 2013 Cabernet Sauvignon (White Label) is 100% Cabernet Sauvignon aged 20 months in about two-thirds new French oak. Very Bordeaux-like, with a St-Julien-like personality, there are notes of crushed stones, gunflint, licorice, cedar wood, Christmas fruitcake and loads of red and blackcurrants.

2013 Larkmead Firebelle, Napa Valley Bordeaux Blend

94 Points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate

The 2013 Firebelle Proprietary Red is a blend of 76% Merlot, 19% Cabernet Sauvignon and 5% Petit Verdot. This wine shows loads of roasted espresso notes mixed with white chocolate, plum, black cherry and currant. The wine is ripe, opulent, full-bodied and a very sexy, lush example of 2013 to drink over the next 15 or more years.

2013 Larkmead LMV Salon, Napa Valley Bordeaux Blend

97 Points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate

The 2013 Proprietary Red LMV Salon, which is a proprietary red of 74% Cabernet Sauvignon and 26% Cabernet Franc, is stunning. The Cabernet Franc seems to give this wine a tremendous fragrance, as the opaque purple color offers notes of cedar wood, underbrush, forest floor and spring flowers along with creme de cassis and black cherries. With a full body, ripe texture and moderately high tannins, this wine will benefit from 4-5 years of cellaring and keep 30-35 years.

Donated by Kari Nakama

Estimated Value: $500

#2006 2008 Dominus Christian Moueix

99 Points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate

Made in a more masculine style, the 2008 Dominus has all of that along with bigger body and more structure, fat, density and texture.

Donated by Kristine Nishiyama

Estimated Value: $250

#2007 2006 Opus One, Napa Valley

Winemaker Notes

A saturated black-purple, the 2006 Opus One shows aromas of fresh cut roses, licorice, dark chocolate, blackberry pie, smoked bacon, and saffron. Simultaneously silky and dense on the palate, this unfiltered wine offers flavors of cassia, espresso, and zesty black cherry. The persistently smooth yet expansive finish of the 2006 promises long life in the bottle.

93+ Points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate

The 2006 comes across as a bigger, more structured wine than the 2007. The tannins are bolder, more dramatic, and more present. The wine displays impressive depth, not the velvety elegance of the 2007, but is a more muscular wine that begs for 2-3 years of cellaring and should drink well for 20-25 years.

Donated by Ernie Doizaki

Estimated Value: $400

#2012 2014 Barnett Vineyards, Merlot, Spring Mountain District

One Case of Wine

90 Points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate

The 2014 Merlot is the kind of Merlot that can get this excessively criticized and maligned grape back in the minds, hearts, and palates of wine consumers. This is a beauty from the Spring Mountain District, a blend of 82% Merlot and 18% Cabernet Franc. A dense bluish/purple color with a big, sweet kiss of blueberries, black raspberries, a touch of cherry, and licorice. It is complex, beautifully velvety, lush, and exactly what Merlot should be. Impressive and long, this Merlot can be drunk now, or cellared for another ten years.

Sushi Workshop for Two

Take a one-day sushi workshop for two people at Sushi Chef Institute in Torrance. The school teaches its students the authentic methods and philosophies which ultimately integrate with each individual's technique and expertise. As part of our curriculum, we train our students on proper sanitation procedures, safe food handling, and business management of a well-functioning restaurant. Upon completion at SCI, we offer students job placement from our networks of chefs and restaurants all around the world.

Chef Andy Matsuda was born near Kobe, Japan, in 1956. When he was 9 years old, the family started a small Japanese restaurant, where he learned the joy of cooking. After graduating from high school, he began to work as an apprentice at Genpachi, one of the most famous restaurants in Osaka, for 5 years. He also became a member of a sushi chef organization called 'Yosei-kai'. At the age of 23, he returned to his hometown to help expand the family business. Once that was completed, at the age of 25, his new challenge in life was to move to Los Angeles, California.

Not redeemable for cash. Workshop availability depends on SCI schedule. Can be used towards any workshop. Expires April 2019.

#4000 Stephen Curry Signed Shoes with Authenticity Guarantee

Wardell Stephen (Steph) Curry II is a basketball player for the Golden State Warriors. Many players and analysts have called him the greatest shooter in NBA history. In 2014–15, Curry won the NBA Most Valuable Player Award and led the Warriors to their first championship since 1975. The following season, he became the first player in NBA history to be elected MVP by a unanimous vote and to lead the league in scoring while shooting above 50–40–90. That same year, the Warriors broke the record for the most wins in an NBA season en route to reaching the 2016 NBA Finals, which they lost to the Cleveland Cavaliers. Curry helped the Warriors return to the NBA Finals for a third straight year in 2017, where he won his second NBA championship.

Curry is the son of former NBA player Dell Curry and older brother of current NBA player Seth Curry. He played college basketball for Davidson. There, he was twice named Southern Conference Player of the Year and set the all-time scoring record for both Davidson and the Southern Conference. During his sophomore year, he also set the single-season NCAA record for three-pointers made.

#5001 Signed Gihachiro Okuyama Print, c. 1963, Chiba Unframed Print

Gihachiro Okuyama was an extremely prolific Japanese print artist who worked in a variety of different styles. He began his career in the late 1920s designing woodblock prints for commercial purposes. His work included posters and advertisements for the Japan Wool Company and Nikka Whiskey. In 1931, Okuyama founded the Tokyo Advertisement Art Association, whose name was later changed to Tokyo Advertising Creator's Club (Tokyo Kokoku Sakka Kurabu). Okuyama's interests were not limited to the commercial aspects of printmaking. From 1923 to 1933, he studied with Ishii Kendo, learning about the traditions of Japanese printmaking and ukiyo-e. In 1932, he was one of many artists who contributed to the print series "One Hundred Views of Great Tokyo" (Dai Tokyo hyakkei), published by Nihon Fukei Hangakai.

Sometime early in his career, Okuyama's prints were published by the Kyoto Hanga-in. In 1946, he established a publishing firm called the Japan Print Institute, which published his woodblock prints along with reproductions of ukiyo-e artists. In 1954, Okuyama established his own publishing studio called the Okuyama Hanga Kobo, where he would design and publish his own landscape prints. During the late 1950s, Okuyama made a series of woodblock prints based on well-known European paintings, several of which were by Vincent Van Gogh. These prints were signed by Okuyama in English.

Like the woodblock prints of his contemporary, Shiro Kasamatsu, Okuyama's work ranges from traditional idealized shin hanga to rough, self-published designs with a more abstract quality. Okuyama is estimated to have produced more than 1000 prints in his lifetime.
