

Welcome Back!

We are excited for your return to our galleries!

Self guided education packets are available upon entry with a $1 cash only suggested donation (we cannot make change). Packets come sealed, are yours to keep and include a pencil, visitor map, and printed copy of the Connection Guide: Finding Meaning at JANM.

Museum COVID-19 reminders

- The Museum will extend its hours to Tuesday–Sunday, from 11 a.m.–5 p.m.
- JANM Members do not need a timed ticket. Show your current membership card for free admission.
- Face masks required for all unvaccinated visitors at all times during your visit, except for children age two and younger.
- Reservations for timed tickets are required. Admission is $16 for adults, and $7 for seniors and students. Children are $7; under age 5 are free.
- FREE admission every Thursday; timed ticket reservations required.
- JANM is proud to participate in the Blue Star Museums program with FREE admission for all active duty military personnel and up to five family members through Labor Day.
- No storage available. JANM cannot hold any jackets, clothing, or bags.
- You can shop the JANM Store online 24/7, but our onsite store is temporarily closed.
- The Hirasaki National Resource Center (HNRC) is temporarily closed.

Visit janm.org for more information.

*Thank you to our members, donors, and visitors for your support.
We hope you enjoy your visit!*

Become a member today...

Membership to JANM supports our mission to promote understanding and appreciation of America's ethnic and cultural diversity by sharing the Japanese American story. To learn more about member benefits and how your contribution helps support our work, visit janm.org/membership.

1 A Life in Pieces: The Diary and Letters of Stanley Hayami
Opening July 9

2 Common Ground: The Heart of Community

3 Under a Mushroom Cloud: Hiroshima, Nagasaki, and the Atomic Bomb

