

Welcome to JANM!

Self guided education packets are available at the front desk with a $1 cash only suggested donation (we cannot make change). Packets are yours to keep and include a pencil, visitor map, and printed copy of the Connection Guide: Finding Meaning at JANM.

Museum hours: Tuesday–Sunday, 11 a.m.–5 p.m.

- Daily ticket reservations are encouraged; walk-ups are available.
- Tickets are good for the entire day of your visit; same day reentry is permitted.
- JANM Members, please show your current membership card for admission.
- Thursdays are FREE admission from 11 a.m.–5 p.m.; last entry 4 p.m.

Visitor Policies

- Masks are required for all visitors, regardless of vaccination status, except for children age two and younger.
- No food or drinks permitted in the museum. Drinking fountains are available.
- A limited number of self-serve storage lockers (9"W x 22"H x 16"D) are available on a first-come basis. Valid ID required to use lockers.
- Large bags are not permitted. JANM cannot hold any jackets, clothing, or bags outside of lockers.

JANM is proud to participate in the Blue Star Museums program with FREE admission for all active duty military personnel and up to five family members through Labor Day.

Hirasaki National Resource Center (HNRC) and the JANM Store remain closed, but you can still order online at janmstore.com.

Please check janm.org/visit for up-to-date visitor policies and ticketing information.

*Thank you to our members, donors, and visitors for your support.
We hope you enjoy your visit!*

Become a member today!

Membership to JANM supports our mission to promote understanding and appreciation of America's ethnic and cultural diversity by sharing the Japanese American story. To learn more about member benefits and how your contribution helps support our work, visit janm.org/membership.

- 1 A Life in Pieces: The Diary and Letters of Stanley Hayami
Through January 9, 2022
- 2 Common Ground: The Heart of Community
Ongoing
- 3 Miné Okubo's Masterpiece: The Art of Citizen 13660
Through February 20, 2022

