2022 Online Auction Donation Guideline & Recommendations

For the 2022 Online Auction, we require that each donated item have a fair market value of $250 or more. We will not bundle items into packages, but you may donate a set of items with a combined value of $250 or more if it is intended to be listed as a themed package (e.g. Hello Kitty set, LA Lakers set).

Suggested Donation Items:

- Handmade arts and crafts
- Vintage cultural artifacts in excellent condition*
- New, unused home/garden and electronic products
- Wines, spirits, and liqueurs
- Unique art prints and sculptures
- Sports memorabilia and collectibles with certificate of authenticity
- Themed gift baskets
- Dining and take-out opportunities at local or chain restaurants with flexible conditions
- Gift cards or certificates redeemable at local businesses
- Subscription services for health & fitness, entertainment, and more
- Set of children’s toys, learning activities, and school-related supplies

*JANM may return the donated item at our discretion if it does not meet standard conditions to be listed. We respectfully request that the donor appraise and assess their donation prior to their commitment.

With the exception of alcohol donations. Individual bottles may have a fair market value below $250, and JANM may bundle donations into packages.

To ensure the best presentation of your donation listing and ample time for marketing, we respectfully request that the donations be sent by February 28, 2022. Please contact us at specialevents@janm.org if you have any questions or concerns.
