

2023 Online Auction Donation Guidelines & Recommendations

For the 2023 Online Auction, we require that each donated item have a fair market value of $250 or more*. JANM will not package together items that are individually below a $250 fair market value. However, if you have multiple items that can be grouped under a theme, you may submit them as one donation, provided that it meets the $250 minimum value requirement. Donations of experiences, tours, or vacation packages have historically been extremely popular and are highly encouraged.

Suggested Donation Items:

- Handmade arts and crafts
- Vintage cultural artifacts in excellent condition
- New, unused home/garden and electronic products
- Wines, spirits, and liqueurs*
- Unique art prints and sculptures
- Sports memorabilia and collectibles with certificate of authenticity
- Themed gift baskets
- Dining and take-out opportunities at local restaurants with flexible conditions
- Gift cards or certificates redeemable at local businesses
- Subscription services for health & fitness, entertainment, and more
- Set of children's toys, learning activities, and school-related supplies

To ensure the best presentation of your donation listing and ample time for marketing, we respectfully request that the donations be sent by March 31, 2023. Please contact us at specialevents@janm.org if you have any questions or concerns.

With the exception of alcohol donations. Individual bottles may have a fair market value below $250, and JANM may bundle donations into packages.

JANM may return the donated item at our discretion if it does not meet standard conditions to be listed. We respectfully request that the donor appraise and assess their donation prior to their commitment.
